

HelpGoat

The Points-based Community Help Exchange

Help each other, help the world...

Post a HelpRequest or HelpOffer

Request or offer help with anything from yardwork, child care, pet care or home projects to music lessons, technical help, community clean up projects or business projects. Sometimes companionship and moral support is all someone needs.

Review and Accept HelpResponses

Review the responses you receive in a private way. Work out any details including timing and the amount of points to be exchanged. Accept the responses you feel comfortable with.

Give or Receive GoatPoints

Receive 300 GoatPoints just for signing up with HelpGoat. Earn more GoatPoints by Responding to HelpRequests or accepting responses to your HelpOffers. Once the help has been delivered, securely exchange points.

Spread the word and start new HelpGroups

With the aim of helping as many people as possible, we are looking for people to start HelpGroups for their local communities and organizations. If you'd like to start a HelpGroup for your neighborhood, school, church, office, friends, family, social group, etc. – download the HelpGoat App, create a new HelpGroup, spread the word and start helping one another within your trusted groups. Contact us for more info.

"Since using HelpGoat I feel like I am uncovering hidden talents in all my friends. I think we are all saving money, too. Things we used to pay people to do, we now post to HelpGoat and inevitably somebody in one of my networks responds. It's also a great way to socialize and meet new people while getting things done."
